Bask Interest Checking Account Promotion Offer Rules

- Must have a new or existing Bask Interest Checking account by June 30, 2025.
- Rate Bonus Reward Period: April 1, 2025, through August 29, 2025.

To Qualify

- Complete $2,500 monthly automated deposits through the reward period.²
- Maintain an average monthly balance of $2,500 through the reward period.³

Qualifying participants will receive the rate bonus reward of 3.00% APY¹ through August 29, 2025. It will be paid in addition to the base rate⁴ of 1.00% APY¹ on the average monthly deposit balances in your Bask Interest Checking Account at the close of each statement period after all qualifying activities are met. If one or more of the qualifying activities are not met, the reward bonus will end until qualifying activities resume.

Example of Eligibility

- Must have a new or existing Bask Interest Checking account by June 30, 2025.
- Set up recurring automated deposits into the Bask Interest Checking account on April 1, 2025.
- Complete one or more recurring automated deposits totaling $2,500 and maintain an average monthly balance of $2,500 in the Bask Interest Checking account for the statement periods of April, May, June, July and August 2025.
- Receive an additional 3.00% APY¹ during April, May, June, July and August 2025.

¹Annual Percentage Yield (APY) is accurate as of March 20, 2025. APY is variable and subject to change at any time without notice. No monthly account fees. Must fund within 15 business days of account opening.

²Posted monthly recurring, automated deposit can come from account owner's employer, payroll, benefits provider or government agency via ACH deposit. External bank ACH transfers also qualify. Check deposits and internal transfers are excluded as recurring, automated deposits. Incoming deposits can be more frequent than once per month to total the qualifying amounts above.

³The Monthly Average Balance is calculated based on an aggregate that includes the end-of-day current balance (less holds) for each day in the period and divided by the number of days in the period.

⁴The Base Interest Rate and Annual Percentage Yield (APY) is variable and subject to change at any time without notice.
